

In the Giraldo Díaz nursery school, the activities of the educational process continue, following sanitary hygienic measures, our nursery schools meet the demands of these difficult times. In his personal, synthesis of love, sweetness and commitment, the trust of the parents remains because only in this way they go calmly to fulfill the duty in their jobs, love and protection for the little ones, that is to feel and "Think like a country ". Production and services work continues despite the temporary adversity imposed by COVID_19.