Our doctors, nurses, and Public Health support personnel are in charge of carrying out the research tasks of the Betancurense population. There is no rest, the bigger the problem, the greater the disposition ... NO REMAINS OF ANOTHER. There is no rest against COVID-19, but behind this effort there needs to be full support from the population. Compliance with the measures directed by the health authorities and the Municipal Defense Council guarantees the health of the people and the control of the pandemic.
