

The Cuban youth will paint with light.

Last Updated: Tuesday, 26 January 2021 11:58

Hits: 70

The Cuban youth will paint the night of next Wednesday with light, this time not on the streets, but on social networks, to welcome January 28 and honor the National Hero, José Martí on the 168th anniversary of his birth. The pandemic forces to "move" to the virtual stage the traditional March of the Torches.