

For many people, Sunday is a day of rest, not being the case for the public health personnel of the Pedro Betancourt municipality, who from early on are in the streets conducting investigations. Compliance with hygienic sanitary measures and the declaration of symptoms by the population play a fundamental role in the battle against COVID-19.