

Signing of the Code of Ethics, a worthy tribute to José Martí.

Last Updated: Thursday, 04 February 2021 12:42

Hits: 37

The Auditors of the UAI of the Popular Power of Pedro Betancourt at the signing of the Code of Ethics in homage to the Anniversary of the Birth of the Apostle.

This January 28 was the 167th anniversary of the birth of Martí, who as early as 1889 alerted his collaborator Gonzalo de Quesada about the North American meddling and wrote: "On our land, Gonzalo, there is another plan darker than it. that until now we know, and it is the wicked one to force the Island, to rush it to war, to have a pretext to intervene in it, and with the credit of mediator and guarantor, to stay with it.