

Remembering the restart of our struggles for independence.

Last Updated: Thursday, 25 February 2021 08:57

Hits: 59

The authorities of the Pedro Betancourt municipality and the Culture workers next to the statue of the Apostle remembering the restart of our struggles for independence. The notes of our National Anthem were sung with all energy and passion. The best tribute to the FOUNDING PARENTS, to those who in the redemptive forest had the immense honor of having the guidance of José Martí and the Cuban Revolutionary Party, let us honor the memory of those who rose up in various parts of the geography of this green alligator raising the inextinguishable cry of INDEPENDENCE OR DEATH 126 years after the great libertarian epic, this February 24, the combat is reaffirmed The homeland proudly contemplates you COUNTRY OR DEATH OVERCOME